Announcements

Today: In our day and age, it seems the world is full of radicals; people who take extreme positions and act in radical ways. Is it possible God is looking for people who are willing to get radical for Him? Because the harvest is great but the laborers are few, followers of Jesus should get radical and beg the Lord of the harvest to throw out laborers into His harvest.

Welcome: guest pianist Sharon Kim, piano teacher and owner of Selah Music Studio.

Glasses Needed: The Escobar Family requests your help with a Maranatha Peru mission trip project in mid-June. Donations of brand-new, any power, reading glasses are needed as well as gently used prescription glasses or sunglasses. Thank you and please bring your donation of glasses to the church kiosk by June 4, or contact Ed 916-952-4109 or Sylvia 541-848-3756.
